Confirmation of Support

On behalf of MOBISMART Mobile Off-Grid Power & Storage Inc., I would like to impart our support in regards to the North America Trans-Territorial Fiber Optic Project currently being developed by Lyle Fabian and KatloTech Communications Ltd.

MOBISMART is a supplier of robust, mobile and stationary telecom remote power equipment specifically providing off grid power, in the forms of solar, wind turbine and battery backup technologies for Trans territorial fibre link, data centers and last mile internet access in remote areas across the North West Territories of Canada.

It is our intent to support KatloTech and continue to develop and execute their Northern Vision to provide world class, next generation telecommunication solutions through the use of fiber optic technologies.

Sincerely,

Nick Efston
